

Later Life Planning Funeral wishes

www.chigginslaw.co.uk

At Catherine Higgins Law we are here to help and support you in making plans for the future to provide clarity for the people who will be looking after your funeral arrangements. It is all about making the legal and financial side of things as easy as possible to administer at a future time when you are no longer able to make the decisions for yourself.

We are here to talk about any worries you may have, whether large or small and please contact us by calling into our office in the heart of Woolton Village or telephone us on 0151 428 2472 or send an email to naomi@chigginslaw.co.uk.

We are at your service and look forward to working with you.
